Overview

The History and Topographical Survey of the County of Kent, published in 1798, recorded that the Parish of Horsemonden, as it was then spelled, is 'full four miles in length from north to south, but its breadth is but small, in some places not more than one, and in its broadest part not more than two miles. The high road from Maidstone through Yalding to Lamberhurst and Sussex, runs through the whole length of the parish; that from Watringbury [sic] over Brandt bridge through Brenchley towards Goudhurst crosses this parish and the other road, at a small green called Horsemonden-heath, which is built round with houses, forming the only village in the parish, the rest of the houses being dispersed singly over different parts'.

The survey continued that the parish was then 'much interspersed with coppice woods of oak ... [that] grow to a large size, and become sometimes nearly equal in value to the freehold of the estates. The church stands, with the parsonage, about a quarter of a mile distant from [the village], very near the southeast boundary of the parish ... A fair is held on St. Swithin's day, now by the alteration of the style on July 26, for cattle, pedlery and toys'. The manor of Horsemonden was said to be originally 'part of the ancient possessions of the archbishopric of Canterbury'. It was subsequently owned by a number of established families including those of William de Albrincis, Hamo de Crevequer, Richard de Rokesle and his two daughters Joane and Agnes, Robert de Poynings, Stephen Darell and his wife Agnes, Richard Payne, William Beswicke of Spelmonden, and James Marriott. As the local parish registers show, the ordinary denizens of Horsmonden named many of their children after their more esteemed neighbours and patrons as well as, of course, England's aristocratic rulers.

The parish registers, together with lists of early wills for the county of Kent, indicate that a number of families of Hickmotes, as the name was then spelled, lived in and around Horsemonden and neighbouring Goudhurst from at least the late 1400s. Heads of the earliest recorded families at Horsmonden included Richard, Bartholemew and Henry Hickmote whose wills were proven in 1500, 1517 and 1528 respectively. Exactly where these and the other first-mentioned Hickmotes sit in the overall family tree still remains to be determined. At present our detailed knowledge of the Horsmonden lines of the Hickmott clan begin with the last will and testament of William Hickmott, a clothier of Horsmonden, which was made out on 28 May 1545 ('the twentieth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord Charles') and was proven shortly afterwards. This indicates that William and a number of his siblings – Thomas, John, Alexander, Stephen, Robert, Leonard and Elizabeth - were then living in the parish, that he was married to Alice, and that they had a daughter, (unnamed and who had yet to reach the age of 21) and one or possibly two sons, Thomas and William. It seems also to suggest that William may have owned a farm in the area.

Unfortunately the will gave no indication of William's age, who his parents were, or whether or not his various siblings were married. Nevertheless, the details provided by the will, when combined with data from the parish registers (shown below) and other sources, enable us to make connections between a significant number of the Hickmotes/Hickmotts who have lived at or have come from Horsmonden. These connections (some of which are best guesses and still need to be proven) are listed on my 'Hickmotts of Horsmonden' Family Tree on Rootsweb). They include the family and descendants of Stephan Hickmott and Joane Iden, who were married at Horsmonden in 1559 and Thomas Hickmott and Elizabeth Kingswoode, who were married there in 1568. Early individuals and families that I have not as yet been able to make connections to include Laurence Hickmott who died at Horsmonden in 1563 and had at least three children: Humphrey, who was born at Horsmonden in 1563 and probably died at Northiam in Sussex in 1593, Thomas, who died at Horsmonden in 1566, and Joane who was buried at Horsmonden in 1567.

	Stephen and Rebecca had two children at Horsmonden – Stephen (1789) and Harriet (1792) – and then three at Brenchley: John (1795), Richard (1797) and David (1800). We haven't as yet been able to determine Stephen's parents although his marriage record notes that he was from Brenchley.

03 Dec 1789	William HICKMOTT of 'Yalden'/Eliz MACE	Horsmonden	igi
	We think William was born at Lamberhurst in 1737, the third son of James and Mary Hickmott of that village. His last will and testament states that he was a yeoman farmer who held a number of parcels of land around Horsmonden. It seems that the family later moved to Marden. The 1841 census has a William Hickmot, aged 79, said to be independent and born in the county, living at Marden with a Mary Ladams aged 58 and also both independent and born in the county.

	Born at Lamberhurst in 1763, John was the son of James and Mary Hickmott of Lamberhurst. John and Sarah may have had one child, John (1791), before they were married. We know they had five children after their marriage, all born at Lamberhurst: James (1793)=Sarah Ticehurst at Lamberhurst in 1825, Martha (1794), Elizabeth (1797)=George Pierce at Lamberhurst in 1814, Harriet (1803)=George Farley at Lamberhurst in 1828, and Sarah (1799).

19 Oct 1815	John HICKMOTT/Mary POTTER (witness: Edward Potter) John and Mary were born at Horsmonden in 1789 and 1798 respectively. We think John was probably a son of John Hickmott and Sarah Bailey born before they were married. John and Mary had at least six children all born at Horsmonden: William (1816), Sarah (1819), Mary (1821), Stephen (1823), Sophia (1827) and James (1830). According to Nancy Rivers, the whole family emigrated to the United States probably in 1854.  William (1816, Horsmonden; John & Mary)=Jane Hall	Horsmonden	igi         igi
30 Sep 1818	John HICKMOTT, 74 Baptised at Horsmonden in around 1744, John was the only son of John and Susannah Hickmott and grandson of Leonard and Margaret Hickmott. We think that he married Ann Hinckley at Horsmonden in 1777 and had at least two daughters: Susannah and Sarah.
