16 Feb 1631	John HICKMOTT/Joan SUNNYBANKE	New W'sor Berk	igi
	The LDS IGI shows that a Johanna Sonibanke was baptized at Mersham in Surrey on 25 November 1607. Her parents were Charles and Joane Sonibanke. She died at All Saints at Oxford in 1673. In her will she wished 'to be buried at St Andrews Holborn, where her husband and five of her children are' (the National Burial Index shows that a Mary 'Hickmutte' and a John Hickmott were buried at New Windsor in Berkshire on 30 April 1639 and 2 March 1642 respectively). Joane left the family's estates to her only sister Elizabeth Longbaine, then a widow of Oxford. Sums of money were left to a number of nephews including Nathaniel and Thomas Chiles/Chyles. John's will, proven in 1657, states he was a gentleman then living at Clifford's Inn in London. He and Joan were the freehold owners of Hartley Manor Farm (then called Daltons, later Hartley Wood Farm) at Hartley south of Cranbrook in Kent. They also had lands and tenements at Staplehurst and Aylesford in Kent, Mersham in Surrey, Cuddesdon near Oxford, High Onger in Essex, and St Andrews at Holborn in Middlesex. John left his estate to the couple's only son, Charles, who was born

in around 1646 and died in 1668 while he was at Oxford. It seems that prior to his death, Charles may have married Mary Smith, the daughter of John Smith, at New Wickham in 1665 (see below). John also left sums of money to his 'loving mother-in-law Mistress Joane Sunnibanke', his 'sister Longbane to buy mourning', his niece Margaret Read, and to the joint overseers of his will, his brother-in-law Longbane and 'cousin Thomas of Goudherst'.

26 Aug 1631	William HICKMOTE/Alice BOULD William (1632), Elizabeth (1633), Thomas (1635), Martha (1637), John (1639), Alice (1641), Susan (1643), Mary (1646)	Horsmonden	igi
08 Sep 1631	Edward HICKMOTE/Anne March Canterbury marriage licences show that Edward was around 30 years of age, a carpenter from Brede in Sussex while Ann was around 24 years old and was from Cranbrook.	Sandhurst Kent	igi

12 Jul 1636	George HICKMOT/Eliz RENNOLDES Born in around 1600, we think that George was the second son of John Hickmotte and Mary Stonestreate although it is possible he was the eldest son of the John Hickmott who died at Horsmonden in 1608. The Canterbury marriage licences show that George was from Horsmonden and was around 36 years old, Elizabeth was from Goudhurst, the widow of Robert Reynoldes. Bonds for the marriage were given by Francis Hickmott, mercer of Headcorn. Known children: John (1637, Horsmonden), Walter (1640, Horsmonden), Elizabeth (1642, Horsmonden). Elizabeth died at Horsmonden in 1643.	Goudhurst	igi
13 Jul 1636	Francis HUCKMET/Elizabeth BRIDGER We think that Francis was the son of John and Anna Hickmott nee Wragley of Horsmonden where he was baptized in 1610. The records of marriage at Canterbury show that Francis Hickmott of Headcorn, a mercer, stood bonds for the marriage of George Hickmott and Elizabeth Reynoldes at Goudhurst in 1636 (George, who was born at Horsmonden in around 1599, was either Frances' step-brother or one of his cousins). As shown below Francis and Elizabeth had three children at Headcorn before the latter's death there in 1641. Francis re-married in 1643, to Elizabeth Ellet at Headcorn.	Benenden Kent	igi

	The East Peckham registers show that a Michael Broadstreet and Anna Stanford were married there on 1632 and that Michael died at East Peckham four years later. We think that Ann was born at East Peckham in 1604, the daughter of Richard and Elizabeth Stanford (nee Cheesman) who were married there on 14 June 1590. John was probably the son of John and Anna Hickmote (nee Wragley), born at Horsmonden in 1608. Known children: John (1638, East Peckham), Anthony (1640; East Peckham), Richard (1644-64, East Peckham)

09 May 1665	Chas HICKMOTT, gent, 19, uni Oxford/ Mary SMYTH, sp, 16 Charles was the only son of John and Joan Hickmott nee Sonibanke who owned lands and tenements in various parts of southeast England. Charles died at Oxford in 1867/8. In his will, proven in 1673, Charles was described as a gentleman of New Windsor in Berkshire. He left his estate largely to his mother, Joan, and amounts of money to his aunts Longbaine (Joan's sister) and Andrews, uncle Wiberd, and various cousins: Nathaniel and Thomas Chyles, Christopher and Edward Potter, Gerran Longbaine, Thomas Lake, and cousins Rose, Offeley, Pollington and Sunnibanke. The will also included the interesting 'Item: I do give and bequeath out of my due respect and love unto Mistress Mary Smith, daughter of Mr John Smith, the sum of £100... as a testimony of my affection to her and undeservedness of her virtues', suggesting that the marriage may not have been consummated or was challenged by the family.
