Hickmott BDMs

(Pre-1837)

1500s

[22 Nov 1568 William HICKMOTE/Margarete HENELY      Horsmonden      igi]

William was probably born at Horsmonden but died at Goudhurst in 1599. His last will and testament indicates he was a yeoman of Goudhurst, his wife was named Margaret [Heneley], he had at least four children at the time of his death – Mary, Thomas, Richard and William – and he owned land at Lamberhurst and Brenchley. Margaret Hickemote nee Henley died and was buried at Goudhurst in 1609. Probable children, all baptized at Goudhurst: Joane (1576-6), Thomas (1577), Richard (1581-1601), Mary (1583).

- 23 Dec 1572 George HICMOTTE/Marie AUSTEN Goudhurst igi
Records in the National Archives mention a George Hickmott of Aylsford, yeoman in 1600.
Joane (6 May 1576, Goudhurst; Wylliam) Tyler
- 12 May 1576 Joane HICKMOTE, dau of Wylliam Goudhurst Tyler
Thomas (bap 13 Oct 1577, Goudhurst: William)=Margaret Combar in 1601 Tyler
Richard (bap 13 Aug 1581-1601, Goudhurst: Wylliam) Tyler
Mary (bap 22 Mar 1583, Goudhurst: Wylham)=Mathew Brown(e) in 1606 Tyler
- 02 Oct 1598 William Henry HICKMOTE/Anne COGGER Cranbrook igi
Although still to be confirmed, we now think that William may have been born at Horsmonden in around 1570, the eldest son of Thomas and Elizabeth Hickmote nee Kingswoode of that village. He died and was buried at Cranbrook in 1636. William's last will and testament indicates that he was a butcher and owned land and properties in both the parishes of Cranbrook and Horsmonden. His properties at Cranbrook were left to his oldest son William (see his details below). Those at Horsmonden were willed to his youngest son Thomas (to be assumed once Thomas reached the age of 26).

Susan McAlpinbe tells us that Anne was baptized at Sandhurst in Kent on 18 November 1576, the daughter of Simon Cogger and Agnes Leeche. She and William lived at Cranbrook after their marriage and had nine children there: William (1600-56), Thomas (1602-3), Mary (1604-51), Anne (1606-75), Katherine (1609-75), Richard (1610), Patience (1612-13), Elizabeth (1616) and Thomas (1618-86). Anne was buried at Cranbrook on 3 November 1648).

The last will and testament of William junior indicates that his wife was Elizabeth, he had a brother Thomas, and at least six children: William, Thomas, Mary who married Edward Vincle, Judith, Jane Rappon (?) and another daughter who married Edward Glover (?).
- 26 Nov 1599 Wylliam HICKMOT/Margarett STEPHEN Goudhurst Tyler
Wylliam was probably the son of Wylliam and Margaret Hickmote nee Heneley (who were married at Horsmonden in 1568). Known children all born at Goudhurst: William (1601-14), Marie (1603), Margaret (1606), Elizabeth (1609-9), Thomas (1618), Elizabeth (1622-22), Richard (1623), Mary (1625-5), George (1626-6), John (1628-8)
William (1599-1656 Cranbrook; William & Ann)=Elizabeth reg
- 9 May 1599 William HICKMOT Goudhurst Tyler
William's last will and testament, made out in the 'one and fortieth year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth' [1599], indicated that he was a yeoman of Goudhurst, that his wife was named Margaret [Heneley], that he had at least four children at the time of his death – Mary, Thomas, Richard and William – and that he owned land at Lamberhurst and Brenchley.

1600s

08 Jun 1601	Thomas HICKMOTT/Margaret COMBAR	Goudhurst	Tyler
	Thomas was probably the son of William Hickmote and Margaret Heneley who were married at Horsmonden in 1598 and had a son, Thomas, baptized at Goudhurst in 1577. We think that he died at Goudhurst in 1604 (see below - the burial notice describes him as ‘Thomas of Rucke’, suggesting that he may have lived at Ruck Farm which is about a mile southwest of Horsmonden on the Lamberhurst Road). Assumed children: Margaret (1602, Horsmonden) and Elizabeth (1604, Horsmonden).

12 Jul 1636	George HICKMOT/Eliz RENNOLDES Born in around 1600, we think that George was the second son of John Hickmotte and Mary Stonestreate although it is possible he was the eldest son of the John Hickmott who died at Horsmonden in 1608. The Canterbury marriage licences show that George was from Horsmonden and was around 36 years old, Elizabeth was from Goudhurst, the widow of Robert Reynoldes. The records of marriage held at Canterbury show that a Francis Hickmott, a mercer of Headcorn, stood bond for George and Elizabeth's marriage. Elizabeth died and was buried at Horsmonden in 1643, George sometime before that (see below). Known children: John (1637-1703, Horsmonden), Walter(1640, Horsmonden) and Elizabeth (1642, Horsmonden). 	Richard was probably the son of Thomas and Margaret Hickmott nee Osborne who were married at Goudhurst in 1643 and had a son, Richard, baptised there in 1651. He had previously been married to Elizabeth Oyler from Cranbrook (see above). Richard probably died and was buried at Goudhurst in 1725. Known children, all baptized at Goudhurst: Patience (1687), Richard (1688), Anne (1691), John (1693) and Stephen (1696). A Richard and Martha Hickmot had a daughter, Sarah, baptized in Kent on 27 March 1698.

	John was probably the second son of Richard Hickmott and Mercy Beechin who were married at Goudhurst in 1685 and had a son, Richard, baptized there in 1693. The local parish registers show that John and Hannah Hickmott had two children at Yalding: Alice in 1737 and Anne (1738/9). They later lived at Goudhurst and had the following children there: Elizabeth (1746), Obedience (1747), Richard (1749), Thomas 1751), Ceelia (1754)
20 Oct 1743	Leonard HICKMUT/Rebecca PARKS	Pembury	igi
	It seems that Leonard and Rebecca went to live at Cranbrook (where we think Rebecca was born) after their marriage and had at least one child there: Leonard Hickmott, baptized on 9 July 1744. We think that Leonard snr died at Cranbrook in 1757 and Rebecca there in 1784. Their son, Leonard, may have married Elizabeth Austen at Cranbrook in 1763.
[30 Oct 1744	James HICKMOTT of Frittenden/ Elisabeth PENNALL	Maidstone	reg]
	The local parish registers show that James and Elizabeth lived at Frittenden after their marriage and had the following children baptized there: James (1748), Hannah (1749), Elizabeth (1751), Mary (1752), Sarah (1754), William (1756) and Jemima (1760). We think that James died at Frittenden in 1803 and Elizabeth there in 1792.

The parish registers show that an Ann Morris was baptized at Cranbrook in 1789 (parents unknown) and another in 1795 (dau of John and Mary Morris). The 1841 census shows George (50 year-old agricultural labourer) and Ann (50) living on Milkhouse Street in Cranbrook with their 13 year-old daughter Silvester. An Anna Hickmott, aged 53, was buried at Cranbrook in 1842. The 1851 census shows the widowed George (61) as a lodger at the home of Hannah Springett (a 53 year-old farmer born in Cranbrook) on Mill Lane in Cranbrook. The 1861 census has George (71 year-old widower and farmer of four acres) lodging on Sissinghurst Road in Cranbrook with his son William and his family. We think he died at Cranbrook the same year. Known children: William Morris (1816; Cranbrook) and Sylvester Ann (1827, Cranbrook),

The censuses and parish registers indicate they had as many as eleven children, all born at Frittenden; Stephen (1813-13), Thomas (1815), Stephen (1817), James (1819), William (1819), John (1822), James (1825), David (1826), Edward (1827), Mary Ann (1830) and Harriet (1833). We think Ann was born at Biddenden in around 1790 although that has still to be confirmed. Known children: James (1821, Frittenden, William (1823, Maidstone), Leonard (1829, Maidstone) and Charlotte (1833, Maidstone). The 1841 census has a James Hickmott (50) living on Water Lane in Maidstone with three of his children: James (20), Leonard (10) and Charlotte (8). The Maidstone parish registers show that James (56 of Water Lane Maidstone) died there in 1846. The 1851 census has the widowed Ann (60, born either in Kent or London) lodging in West Maidstone with Leonard (20 year-old groom) and Charlotte (17 year-old shoe binder).

[24 Jun 1823 John HICKMOTT/Eliz THIRKELL Maidstone mkmi]

(Wit: George and Sarah Thirkell). I am assuming this the right couple since they named one of their daughters Sarah 'Thirkill' (see below). Since they named their first daughter Elizabeth Burges, I am also assuming that John was born at Frittenden in 1793, the son of Stephen Hickmott and Elizabeth Burges. The LDS index shows that an Elizabeth Pennick Thirkle, the daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth, was baptized at Benenden in 1799. The 1851 census shows John (56 year-old farmer of 24 acres and grocer born at Frittenden) and Elizabeth (52, Benenden) at Balcombe House in Frittenden with five children, all born at Frittenden: Elizabeth B. (26), William (19), Olive (15), Hannah (18) and Eleanor E. (11). They were still there in 1861 together with: William (29), Olive (25) and Eleanor (21). John died and was buried at Frittenden on 21 October 1861 (whereupon his son William took over the farm). The 1871 census shows the widowed Elizabeth (71, Benenden) at the home of Eleanor (31, Frittenden) and William West (32 year-old butcher born at Crodon in Surrey) at 16 North End in Croydon. Also present were William and Eleanor's children – Eleanor (7), William (3), John (1) and Kate (1m) all of whom were born at Croydon - as well as Eleanor's two sisters: Elizabeth B. (45) and Hannah Hickmott (33) as well as three servants. Elizabeth died at Croydon in 1878. Known children all baptized at Frittenden: Elizabeth Burges (1825), Caroline Flethcher (1826), Mary Ann (1829), William (1832), Sarah Thirkill (1833), Olive (1836), Hannah (1837), Eleanor Elliot (1840).

Born at Lamberhurst in 1793, James was the eldest son of John Hickmott and Sarah Bailey. Sarah was born at Dallington in Sussex in 1799. The 1841 census shows William (40 year-old farmer) and Lydia (35) at Eastwood in Ulcombe with their two children – William (3) and Elizabeth (1) – and two servants: Sarah and Sophia Watts. Lydia died, aged 38, in 1842 and was buried at Frittenden. The 1851 census has the widower William (52 year-old farmer of 130 acres born at Frittenden) at Lashenden Farm with his unmarried brother James (59), tow children – William (12) and Elizabeth (10) – and four servants. William (61) and James (59) and William's two children were still there in 1861 plus two servants. William died at Frittenden in 1868. We suspect that Elizabeth died at Frittenden in 1838/9 while giving birth to the couple's daughter Emily (who died the same day – see below). The 1841 census shows Thomas (25 year-old agricultural labourer) living with his parents and siblings at Pore Farm in Frittenden. We think that Thomas later married the widow Alice Bowles in the Cranbrook RD in 1846. He and she had a daughter, Mary Ann Hickmott, before John's death at Frittenden in 1857. The 1851 census has William (36, Cranbrook) and Sarah (32, Cranbrook) living at Cranbrook with their three daughters: Emily (11), Sarah (6) and Frances (3) where all were born at Cranbrook. Next door was Isaac Dobell (29 year-old butcher) and his wife Louisa (25). John was born at Frittenden in around 1822, the son of Thomas Hickmott and Mary Ann Bate or Wraight (who were married at Frittenden in 1813). The 1851 census shows John (29 year-old agricultural labourer born at Frittenden) and Harriet (29, Frittenden) living at 'Hickens Cottage' at Frittenden with their two children: William Thomas (8) and Harriet (6) both of whom were born at Frittenden. We think that Harriet died in 1890. The 1891 census shows John (69 year-old widower and farm labourer born at Frittenden) as a pauper in the Cranbrook Union Workhouse (also present was a 14 year-old Rose Hickmott who was born at Cranbrook – Rose could have been the daughter of William Thomas). Although still to be confirmed, we think that John died there in 1894. Known children: William Thomas (1843, Frittenden) and Harriet (1844, Frittenden).

1846 Thomas HICKMOTT/Alice BOWLES Cranbrook bdm

At the time of the 1841 census Thomas (25) was living at Frittenden with his parents: Thomas and Mary Ann Hickmott nee Wraight (who were married at Frittenden in 1813). The censuses show that Alice Bowles was born at Boughton Monchelsea in around 1820, probably the daughter of Mary and John Bowles, a blacksmith, of Frittenden. She had a daughter, Sabina Bowles, before her marriage and another, Mary Anne Hickmott, with Thomas at Frittenden in 1846. Thomas, then aged 32, died and was buried at Frittenden in 1847. The 1851 census shows the widowed Alice (31, B-Monchelsea) living at Back Lane Cottage in Frittenden (two doors away from a John and Elizabeth Bowles). With Alice were her two daughters – Sabina Bowles (10, B-Monchelsea) and Marian (4) – and Richard Baker (69, Frittenden), a lodger. Note that the census also showed Alice Bowles (32 year-old widow born at Boughton Monchelsea), visiting the widow Mary Bowles (72, B-Monchelsea) at Boughton Monchelsea. Alice died at Frittenden in 1852. The 1861 census shows a Mary A. Hickmott (14, Frittenden) living and working at Frittenden as a servant at the home of her grandparents Thomas and Mary Ann Hickmott (nee Wraight).

Born at Frittenden in 1825, James was the son of Thomas and Mary Ann Hickmott nee Wraight who were married at Frittenden in 1813. The 1851 census shows that Sarah was born at Biddenden in 1825. They lived initially at 'Chapile Cottage' in Frittenden, where James worked as an agricultural labourer. With them in 1851 were their three children: James (age difficult to read), Rachel (2) and Stephen (6 weeks) where all were born at Frittenden. They had another son, Thomas (born at Frittenden in 1853) before James' death at Frittenden in 1852. We think that Sarah died at Frittenden in 1859 for the 1861 census shows both Stephen (10) and Thomas Hickmott (8) as orphans and living at 'Dingleden Farm House' with the brothers George (44) and William Pope (41) both of whom were born at Biddenden. Their sister Rachel (12) was living at Smarden with her uncle David Hickmott (35 year-old farmer of 50 acres and born at Frittenden) and family. Known children: James (1840s, Frittenden), Rachel (1849, Frittenden), Stephen (1851, Frittenden), Thomas (1853, Frittenden).

The 1851 census shows the unmarried Stephen (33 year-old bailiff born at Frittenden) at Whitewell in Cranbrook, the home of Stephen (32, Cranbrook) and Margaret Jenner (27, Mountfield Sussex). In 1861 Stephen (44 year-old farmer of 30 acres) and Harriet 39, Cranbrook) were at Sissinghurst with their three children – Mary Ann (5), Stephen (2) and James (9m), all of whom were born at Cranbrook – and Harriet's widower father, William Powell (71, Cranbrook). Born at Lamberhurst in 1793, James was the son of John and Sarah Hickmott nee Bailey of Lamberhurst. He married Sarah Ticehurst at Lamberhurst in 1825 (Sarah was born at Dallington in Sussex in 1799). They had six children, all born at Lamberhurst: William (1828), James (1830), Henry (1832), Sarah Ann (1835), Hannah (1838) and John (1840) before moving to live at Cranbrook the following year. James worked as a post man before his retirement and death in the local Union House. Sarah died in 1867.
- [20 Sep 1874 Thomas HICKMOTT/Eliz DUNGEY botp Biddenden mkmi]
(Parents: James Hickmott and Charles Dungey). The 1861 census shows an Elizabeth Dungey (10, Cranbrook) was living at Marden with her father Charles (48, Cranbrook) and mother Barbara (52, Lamberhurst) and two siblings. In 1871 Elizabeth (18, Cranbrook) was living at Milton in Kent with her brother George Dungey (29, Cranbrook) and his family. The 1881 census shows a Thomas Hickmott, 38 year-old widower and agricultural labourer who was born at Cranbrook, living in Cranbrook with his two daughters - Ann E. (6, Biddenden) and Rosa (4, Cranbrook) – and Harriet Moore, a 45 year-old servant born at Rolvenden in Kent. The Catherine House index shows that an Eliza Dungey was born in the Cranbrook RD in 1852 and an Elizabeth Hickmott, aged 27, died in the Cranbrook RD in 1880. The 1891 census shows a Rose Hickmott (14, Cranbrook) as a pauper in the Cranbrook District Union Workhouse (also there was a 69 year-old John Hickmott who may have been Rose's grandfather). The 1901 census shows a 59 year-old Thomas Hickmott (single and born at Frittenden) as a pauper in the Cranbrook District Union Workhouse. An Annie Hickmott (14 year-old domestic servant who was born at Biddenden) was a patient in the Western Hospital in the Tormoham Parish in Devon. Rose (26, Cranbrook) was a nurse in the Kings Norton District Infirmary in Northfield in Worcestershire.

Alice was born London in 1852, daughter of Richard Kemp, ostler. The 1881 census shows Alfred (29 year-old gardener) and Alice (29) living on Crown Court in Cranbrook with their two daughters: Ellen Maria (5) and Edith Annie (1) both of whom were born at Cranbrook. The 1891 census shows Alfred (40 year-old gardener and milk vendor) and Alice (40, Limehouse London) still at Crown Court in Cranbrook. With them were four children, all born at Cranbrook: Edith (11), Ada (9), Charles William (5) and Florence (2). They were both still there in 1901 together with their youngest daughter 'Louie' (9, Cranbrook). Alice's place of birth was said to be St John's Wood in London. In 1911 Alfred (59) and Alice (59) were living at 4 Studio Cottages in Cranbrook. Alfred died at Cranbrook in 1913. Alice died there in 1930. Known children all born at Cranbrook: Ellen Maria (1875), Ernest (1877-8), Edith Annie (1879), Ada (1881), Daisy (1884-7), Charles William (1886), Florence (1889-93) and Louise (1892).

 The wife of William Morris Hickmott (1816-81), Sarah was born at Cranbrook and married William in around 1838. The censuses show they lived first at Cranbrook and later Sissinghurst and had at least seven children all born at Cranbrook: Emily (1839), Sarah (1845), Frances (1848), Caroline (1852), Matilda (1856), George (1858) and Harriet (1861).
- 09 Nov 1878 William HICKMOTT/Eliza WICKENS Cranbrook reg
 (Wit: Richard & Elizabeth Wickens). A brickmaker by trade, William was born at Cranbrook in 1855, son of William, brickmaker, and Sophia Maria Hickmott (nee Wilding who were married in the Cranbrook RD in 1851). William was living at Rye in Sussex at the time of his marriage. Eliza was also born at Cranbrook in 1858, dau of Thomas Wickens, labourer (the LDS index shows that Eliza Wicken, daughter of Thomas and Sarah, was baptized at Cranbrook All Saints on 27 June 1858 (the MKMI shows a Thomas Wickens and Sarah Cousins were married at Cranbrook in 1841). The 1881 census shows William (26 year-old brickmaker) and Eliza (26) living at Union Mills in Cranbrook. They were at the 'Tan Yard' in Cranbrook in 1891 with their five children all born at Cranbrook: Kate (9), Rose (8), Tom (6), Arthur (3) and William (10m). They were in the Spring Cottages in Cranbrook in 1901 with: Kate (19), Rose (18), Tom (16), Arthur (13), William (10), Henry J. (7) and Mary (3). Back at Spring Cottages in 1911: William (55), Eliza (54), Arthur (23), Henry (17) and Mary/May (13). The census return states that William and Eliza had been married 33 years and had seven children all still living. We think that Eliza died in the Hendon RD of Middlesex in 1941. Known children: Kate (1882, Cranbrook), Rose (1883, Cranbrook), Tom (1885, Cranbrook), Arthur (1888, Cranbrook), William (1891, Cranbrook), Henry James (1893, Cranbrook), Mary (1897, Cranbrook).

William was born at Cranbrook in 1816, the son of George Hickmott, an agricultural labourer, and Ann Morris (who died between 1841 and 1851). The brother of Silvester Hickmott, William married Sarah from Cranbrook there in around 1838. The censuses show William and Sarah lived first at Cranbrook and later Sissinghurst and had at least seven children all born at Cranbrook: Emily (1839), Sarah (1845), Frances (1848), Caroline (1852), Matilda (1856), George (1858) and Harriet (1861).
- 1882 William HICKMOTT/Elizabeth RANSOM Cranbrook bdm
William was born at either Frittenden or Ulcombe in 1860, Elizabeth in Frittenden in 1863, the daughter of John and Marion Ransom. After their marriage, the couple lived initially at Staplehurst. The 1891 census shows William, 31 year-old agricultural labourer born at Frittenden, and Elizabeth (28, Frittenden) living at Newstead in Staplehurst with their four children all born at Staplehurst: William (8), Julia (5), John (4) and George (1m). The 1901 census has the family at Reed Point House in Marden: William (41 year-old farm bailiff), Elizabeth (38), William (18), John (14), George (10), Edith (4, Staplehurst) and Beatrice (1, Marden). We think Elizabeth died in 1902. The 1911 census shows the widower William (51 year-old farm labourer) boarding with the King family at Marden. Beatrice (11) was with her uncle and aunt George and Mary Ransom at 14 Horseferry Road Greenwich. Edith (14) was with her married sister Julia Smith (27) and her husband Eli (29 year-old waggoner on a farm born at Marden). at the Thorn Cottage at Marden. and then at Marden. We think William died in 1949 although that has still to be confirmed. Known children: William (1873, Staplehurst), Julia (1885, Staplehurst), John (1887, Staplehurst), George (1891, Staplehurst), Edith (1896, Staplehurst) and Beatrice (1899, Marden).

Born at Ulcombe in around 1859 Thomas was probably the son of William and Mary Hickmott nee Wise who were married in the Cranbrook RD in 1857. Kate was born at Biddenden, the daughter of Henry Brown, a carpenter. At the time of the 1891 census, Thomas (32) was boarding at 5 Newcastle Street in Poplar in London. The head of the household was William Taylor (28 year-old carpenter born at Frittenden). Also present were William's wife, Alice (20, Frittenden) and widowed 'mother', Emily M. Tamkin (50, Benenden). Kate (29, Biddenden) was living at 'Sinksnorth' in Frittenden along with their three children: Thomas (7), Kate (5) and Bertha (11m) all of whom were born at Frittenden. The 1901 census shows Thomas (42) and Kate (39) at 'The Park' in Frittenden with four children: Thomas (17), Kate (15), Bertha (10) and Annie (8, Frittenden). Thomas (52), Kate (49) and Annie (18 year-old domestic servant) were at (Park Cottage) Frittenden in 1911. The census return shows that Thomas and Kate had had five children four of whom were living. We think that Kate died in the Hollingbourne RD in 1933 (the UK National Probate Calendar shows that a Kate Alice Hickmott, wife of Thomas, a painter, died at Bearsted on 23 September 1933. Thomas probably died in the Crewe RD of Cheshire in 1940. Known children: Thomas (1884, Frittenden), Kate (1886, Frittenden), Bertha (1890, Biddenden) and Ann (1893, Frittenden).

Probably the daughter of James and Sarah Hickmott nee Ticehurst who were married at Lamberhurst in 1825 but later lived at Cranbrook. The censuses indicate that Sarah worked as a servant at St Pancras in London in 1861, Cranbrook in 1871 and 1881 and possibly Hastings in Sussex in 1891. She did not marry.
- 1894 James HICKMOTT, 33 Cranbrook bdm
James was born at Sissinghurst in 1861, the son of . He married Ellen Worsley Rofe in the Tenterden registration district of Kent in 1888. James and Ellen had two children we know of, Edwin David and Harold Agar Hickmott where both were born at Frittenden.
- 1894 John HICKMOTT, 71 Cranbrook bdm
Probably born at Frittenden, the son of John and Mary Ann Hickmott nee Wraight who were married at Frittenden in 1813. Married Harriet Hayter in the Cranbrook RD in 1842. Two children.

- [11 Feb 1895 Silas HICKMOTT/Sarah Ann MUNDAY Ashford reg]
Silas was born at Frittenden in around 1857, the son of Silas and Jane Hickmott nee Bridger who were married in the Cranbrook RD in 1839. Silas was at Frittenden with his sisters in 1871, 1881 and 1891. The 1901 census shows Silas (44 year-old farmer) and Annie Sarah (42, Mersham) were living in Water lane in Frittenden in 1901 together with Annie's widowed mother, Francis Munday (66, Hythe). The 1911 census has Silas (54) and Amy (52) at New Weaversden in Frittenden. The census return states that they had been married 17 years and had no children. Silas, then of the Nook in Frittenden, died there on 24 June 1927 (probate to Herbert Dungey, farmer).
- 21 Jul 1895 William HICKMOTT/Mary EASON Hawkhurst mkmi
The 1901 census shows a William (64, Lamberhurst) and Mary Hickmott (40, Hawkhurst) living at Hawkhurst. The LDS index shows that a Mary Eason, daughter of Samuel and Esther Eason, was baptized at Hawkhurst on 29 May 1859. The 1891 census shows William (single, 55 and born at Lamberhurst) living at Hawkhurst next door to the Eason family. He was lodging at Gills Green in Hawkhurst in 1871. In 1851 he was lodging with the Jinner family at Wadhurst Round Farm in Frant. The 1911 census shows William, a 78 year-old retired farm labourer born at Ticehurst, and Mary (50, Hawkhurst) living on Lavender Row in Hawkhurst. No children.
- [1895 John HICKMOTT/Kate STEVENS West Ashford bdm]
Born at Ulcombe in 1862, John was probably the son of William and Mary Hickmott nee Wise who were married in the Cranbrook RD in 1857 and later lived at Frittenden. Kate was born at Little Chart in Kent in around 1867. The 1901 census shows John, a 39 year-old agricultural labourer, and Kate (34) living at the Tanyard in Frittenden with three children all born at Frittenden:

Charles (1895), John Victor (1897) and Helen (1900). The family was still there in 1911: John (49), Kate (44), Charley (16), John Victor (14), Helen (11), Herbert (8), Arthur (6) where all but Kate were born at Frittenden. Visiting them was Francis Stevens a 67 year-old journeyman carpenter who was married and born at Pluckley in Kent. The census shows that John and Kate had been married 17 years and had five children, all living. We think John died in the Cranbrook RD in 1938 and Kate in the Maidstone RD in 1954. Known children: Charles (1894, Frittenden), John Victor (1897, Frittenden), Helen (1899, Frittenden), Herbert George (1902, Frittenden), Arthur F. (1904, Frittenden).

13 Nov 1897 Caleb Oliver HICKMOTT/Eleanor FISHER Cranbrook reg
 (Wit: Ellen Ingram & Sidney Hooker). Born at Cranbrook in 1866, Caleb, a labourer of Bank Street Cranbrook, was the fourth son of William and Sophia Hickmott nee Wilding. He may have traveled to the United States before marrying Eleanor at Cranbrook (she was born there in 1879). They were living at Cranbrook and had had one daughter, Ellen (1, Cranbrook) by the time of the 1901 census. The family was living at Crown Court in Cranbrook in 1911: Caleb (45), Eleanor (28), Eleanor (11), William (8), Dorothy (5) and Mary (3) all of whom were born at Cranbrook. The census return states they had had four children. We think Caleb died at Cranbrook in 1944 and Eleanor there in 1960. Known children all born at Cranbrook: Eleanor (1899), William Caleb (1902), Dorothy Beatrice (1905) and Mary (1908). The 'family history stuff and Taniya and Family 1' family tree on Ancestry tells us that Caleb and Eleanor had another daughter, Joan Kathleen (1913-95), who was born at Cranbrook, married William (Sam) Thomas Douglas (1908-60) at Ashford in Kent in 1942 and had two children.

1900 William Joseph HICKMOTT/
 Frances Helen OWEN Cranbrook bdm
 The 1901 census shows that William, a house painter, was born at Hawkhurst in Kent in around 1875 (the son of George and Harriet Hickmott born respectively at Framfield in Sussex in 1842 and Salehurst in Kent in 1841). Frances was born at Kensington in London in 1877. In 1911 they were living at 10 Armitage Place in Hawkhurst with their three children: Owen (9), Frances (5) and Walter (2) all of whom were born at Hawkhurst. We think that William died in the Lambeth RD of London in 1951 and Frances in the Croydon RD of Surrey in 1967. Known children: William Conrad Owen Hickmott (1901, Hawkhurst), Edith Frances Hickmott (1905, Hawkhurst), Walter cabinetmaker born at Cranbrook) living at Spring Cottages in Cranbrook with their son William Alfred Bultler (5m, Cranbrook).

- [ 1908 Ebenezer Stephen HICKMOTT/
Ruth TAYLOR Tonbridge bdm]
Born at Brenchley in around 1873, Ebenezer was the only son of Frederick and Mary Hickmott nee Hartfield (who were married in the Tonbridge RD in 1878). 'James cousins' family tree on Ancestry tells us that Ruth was the eldest daughter of Thomas Taylor (1856-1922) and Kate Palmer (1855-1910) who were married at Hastings in Sussex in 1884. The 1911 census shows Ebenezer (28, Brenchley) and Ruth (26, Hawkhurst) living in Hawkhurst with their two children: Ebenezer Frederick (2) and Herbert Stephen (4m) both of whom were born at Hawkhurst. We think that Ruth died in Tonbridge in 1958. The UK National Probete Index shows that Ebenezer of the Lodge Canterbury Road at Brabourne in Kent died on 31
March 1965 at Ashford Hospital. Probate paid to Wilfred Frank Knight, retired railway clerk. Known children: Ebenezer Frederick (1909,
