c1700 William HICKMOTT/Alice TYLER
 Known children: Thomas (1698, Brenchley), William (1700, Brenchley), Ann (1701 Brenchley), Mary (1703, Brenchley), Martha
 (1705-8, Horsmonden), William John (1706, Horsmonden), Stephen (1708, Horsmonden) and Frances (1710, Horsmonden). The National Archives has as a plaintiff in a legal case in 1740 a John Hickmott, farmer of Yalding and son of William Hickmott late of 'Bockenfold Kent' and Alice Hickmott his wife. We think that Alice died at Horsmonden in 1712 and William re-married in 1714 (see below).

03 Apr 1714 William HICKMUT (w) /
Sarah YEOMANS (w) both of Yalding West Farleigh reg
 William may have been known as William of 'Bockenfold' or 'Buckingfielday'. We think he was previously married to Alice Tyler (see above). William and Sarah probably had at least two children baptised at Horsmonden - William (in 1715) and James (1715). A William Hickmott was buried at Yalding in 1774.

 The National Archives has as a plaintiff in a legal case in 1740 a John Hickmott, farmer of Yalding and son of William Hickmott late of 'Bockenfold Kent' and Alice Hickmott his wife. 03 Feb 1756 Alice HICKMOTT/William STARNES botp Yalding reg (Wit: John Hickmott, Wm Humphrey). We think Alice was born at Yalding in 1737, the eldest daughter of John Hickmott and Hannah Fincett. The local parish registers show they lived at Yalding after their marriage and had the following children baptized there: William (1759-73), Alice (1763), William H. (1766) and Mary (1774). There is no record of their burials at Yalding, suggesting they have moved away from the parish sometime after 1774.

14 Aug 1757 John HICKMOTT of Brenchley Yalding reg
 /Mary WHITTLE otp
 (Wit: Nicholas Mol:e, William Humphrey). A John Hickmott, the son of John, was baptized at Brenchley in 1724. His mother was either Mary Sennock (married at Brenchley in 1703) or Judith Saxby (married at Brenchley in 1722). There is no record of Mary being born at Yalding (the LDS index of baptisms does show that a Mary Whittle, daughter of Robert, was baptized at East Malling in Kent in 1734). John and Mary's known children: Thomas (1759, Brenchley), Judy (1764, Brenchley) and John (1766, Brenchley). The parish registers show that a John Hickmott was buried at Brenchley in 1765.

 We think this could have been Ann Relfe who was baptised at Marden in 1684 and married a Stephen Hickmott there in 1706.

We think William was born at Lamberhurst in 1737, the third son of James and Mary Hickmott of that village. His last will and testament states that he was a yeoman farmer who held a number of parcels of land around Horsmonden. Possible children: William (1793, Maidstone) and Thomas (1796, Yalding). The 1841 census has a William Hickmot, aged 79, said to be independent and born in the county, living at Marden with a Mary Ladams aged 58 and also both independent and born in the county.

The 1851 census has a Walter Hickmott, a 76 year-old former brewer and distiller born at Yalding, living at 4 College Almshouse in West Maidstone. The Catherine House records show that a Walter Hickmott died in the Maidstone RD in 1860. 08 Jan 1821 Stephen HICKMOTT/Mary EAGLES B Monchelsea igi Stephen was probably born at Brenchley, the son of Stephen and Hannah Hickmott nee Scrace who were married there in 1788 and had a son, Stephen, baptized there in 1793. The 1841 census has Stephen (a 45 year-old agricultural labourer) and Mary (40) living at 'Hawkwell' in Pembury with their 15 year-old daughter, Mary [born at Yalding in around 1821]. The 1851 census shows a Stephen (54, Brenchley) and Mary Hickmott (52, Yalding) living at 'Hawkwell Cottage' in Pembury. They were still at Pembury in 1861. Mary died some time before the 1871 census which shows the widowed Stephen (77, Brenchley) lodging at 'Ambhurst Cottages' in Pembury. The Catherine House index shows that Stephen died in 1872. Probable children: Mary Ann (1821, Yalding).

04 Jan 1833 Charlotte HICKMOTT/Robert PARKER Maidstone mkmi

(wit: Henry and Mary Hutson). Charlotte was born at Yalding in around 1811, most likely the daughter of John and Ann Hickmott nee Cheeseman (who were married at Maidstone in 1802 and had a daughter, Charlotte, baptized at Yalding in 1806). The 1851 census has Robert, 43 year-old agricultural labourer born at Hunton, and Charlotte living at Hunton with their children Henry (16), William (14), Ann (12), Richard (11), Edward (6), Sophia (3) and George Parker (2) all of whom were born at Hunton.

09 Aug 1835 Charles HICKMOTT (1813-)/ Mary Ann MAYNARD (1819-72) West Farleigh igi

Charles is probably the son of James Hickmott and Mary Dove. He was born at West Farleigh in 1813. Mary Ann was born at Rotherfield in Sussex in around 1819 (the LDS index shows that an Anne Maynard, daughter of Edward and Mary Maynard was baptized at Rotherfield in 1819). The censuses indicate that the family lived at East Farleigh in 1851 (next door to Charles' younger sister Eliza Spicer) and at Yalding in 1861 – with Charles' mother, Mary Hickmott, aged 77 years and born at West Farleigh, with them at the time - and in 1871 (the three year-old Charles Day was then a visitor). Mary Ann died the following year, aged 53 years. The 1881 census shows the widower Charles living by himself at Yalding. Charles probably re-married after Mary Ann's death in 1872, to a widow Sarah Parramore at Yalding in 1874. We think that Sarah died in 1880. We have not as yet found when and where Charles died. The censuses and local parish registers show that Charles and Mary Ann had at least six children: Mary (1837, East Farleigh), Matilda (1839, East Farleigh), Eliza (1841, East Farleigh), James (1843, West Farleigh), Charles (1846, West Farleigh), William (1847, West Farleigh), Ann (1848, West Farleigh), Louisa (1850, East Farleigh), George (1853, East Farleigh), William Page (1855, East Farleigh), Eliza Matilda (1857, Yalding) and Kate Maynard (1860, Yalding).

24 Jul 1836 Stephen HICKMOTT (1813-86)/ Harriot SMITH (1816-58) B Monchelsea igi

Stephen was born at Yalding in 1813 (the son of John Hickmott and Ann Cheeseman who were born at Maidstone in 1802) and worked as a carpenter. Harriot was born at Langley in Kent in 1816 and died at Boughton Monchelsea in 1858. Her mother was Jane Smith. Stephen and Harriot lived all their married lives in Boughton Monchelsea and had at least eleven children there: Mary Ann (1836), Sophia (1838), Jane (1840), William (1840), Ellen (1841), Charlotte (1843), Sarah (1845), Thomas (1847), Maria (1848), John (1850), Elizabeth (1851), Helena (1853), Stephen (1854), Eliza (1857) and William (1857). Following Harriot's death at Boughton-Monchelsea in 1858, Stephen married Amelia Sunnock at Maidstone in 1865. He died there in 1886. According to one of their descendants, John Francis Hickmott of Wellington, Stephen and Harriot's son and daughter, John and Elizabeth, emigrated from England to Christchurch in New Zealand in 1776. Their brother William came later in around 1885. While the family think that Elizabeth may have returned home, John and William remained in New Zealand.

23 Oct 1869 James HICKMOTT/Martha KING botp Yalding reg
 Parents: Charles Hickmott (and Mary Ann Maynard who were married at West Farleigh in 1835) and Thomas King both labourers (The 'Bates Family Tree' on Ancestry.com tells us that Martha's mother was Mary Latter who married Thomas King at Teston in 1843). The 1871 census shows James, a 27 year-old agricultural labourer born at West Farleigh, and Martha (24, Teston) living at East Farleigh with their son Charles (10m, East Farleigh). Sometime after this James and Martha emigrated to Queensland in Australia where they had at least two other children: Kate (1874) and Matilda (born and died in 1876). Ancestry's Australian bdm indices show a Martha Hickmott, daughter of Thomas King and Mary Latter, also died in Queensland in 1876. The indices further show that a James Hickmott married Elizabeth Hunt in Queensland on 4 June 1877 (reg no 792) and the following children of James and Martha died in Queensland: James William (in 1887), Elizabeth (1888) and Charles (1898). A second James William Hickmott, son of James and Elizabeth Hickmott nee Hunt, died in Queensland in 1890. James Hickmott, the son of Charles Hickmott and Mary Ann Maynard, died there in 1905. His second wife, Elizabeth Jane Hickmott, daughter of Joseph Hunt and Florence Amelia Tarbut, died in Queensland in 1926. Note that Kate and William Boniface had at least one son: James William Henry Boniface who, according to the 'Fredrickson Family Tree' on Ancestry, was born at Rockhampton in Queensland in 1907, married Vivien Annie Febrin Smith and died at Rockhampton in 1976.

 Parents: James Hickmott and Thomas Nash both labourers. We think that Charles was born at West Farleigh in 1813, the son of James Hickmott and Mary Dove (who were married at Maidstone in 1802). He had earlier married Mary Ann Maynard at West Farleigh in 1835 and had at least six children with her. Mary Ann died in the Maidstone RD in 1872. The 1881 census has a Charles Hickmott (65 year-old widower born at West Farleigh) living at Yalding with a 57 year-old housekeeper, Elizabeth Hughes. We think that he died some time before the 1891 census although that has still to be determined.

 Mary Ann HOBBS (1855-1930) Maidstone bdm*
 The LDS index shows William was born at West Farleigh in 1853, the illegitimate son of Elizabeth Hickmott (daughter of John and Ann Hickmott nee Joy of West Farleigh with whom William was living at the time of the 1861 census). In 1871 William (18) was living at East Farleigh with his aunt and uncle Frances (30, West Farleigh) and James Gilbert (29, Tenterden) and their two children Frances A. (7, Yalding) and James A. The couple lived at Barming for most of their married lives and had eleven children there: Ann (1879), Rowland (1880-81), Elizabeth (1882-85), Hilda Mary (1883), Harry (1886), Elizabeth (1888-95), Frank (1890), Kate (1892), James (1894), Charles (1896) and Margaret (1898).  Stephen Walter TOWNER (20) botp Yalding reg Parents: Abraham Hickmott and Thomas Towner both labourers. Sarah was probably born at Horsmonden, the daughter of Abraham and Caroline Hickmott nee Burton (who were married at Malling in 1838). Towner and her family.

They lived at Boughton Monchelsea at least until 1901 and had one daughter we are aware of: Alice, born at Boughton in 1882.
